FINANCIAL PLAN.

Years ago there were among the women in our church two organizations, known as the Aid Society, for the relief of the poor, and the Missionary Society.

But it was thought best to unite these two, and now the work of both organizations is done under the name of the Woman's Missionary Society.

The monthly contributions are divided among the following objects:

The Poor;

Foreign Missions;

Home Missions, and State Missions.

The proportion is as follows: One-third to the Poor; one-third to Foreign Missions; one-third divided equally between Home and State Missions.

Thus, for example, a member contributing 30 cents per month, gives 10 cents to the Poor, 10 cents to Foreign Missions, 5 cents to Home Missions, and 5 cents to State Missions.

There are three special offerings during the year:
One for Home Missions in March at the close of the Week of Prayer;

One for State Missions in September (?) on State Mission Day;

One for Foreign Missions (China) on Christmas Day.
